ECC; 2 COSTOMER PROPRIETARY NETWORK INFORMATION (CPMI) RULES

Dobson Telephone Company's operating procedures ensure that Dobson Telephone Company is in compliance with the FCC's CPMI Rules because disclosure of, or permitting access to, our customers' CPMI is not allowed without obtaining the requisite customer approval, except as required by law, or the exceptions set forth in 47 U.S.C. $222, and Subpart U of Title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations; 47 C.F.R $64.2001 through $64,2009.

Dobson Telephone Company has internal procedures in place to educate our employees about CPMI and the disclosure of CPMI. Our employees are instructed that CPMI is information that relates to the quantity, technical configuration, type, destination, location and amount of use of the telecommunications services subscribed to by any customer of our relationship with our customers; and information contained in the bills pertaining to customers; except that such term does not include subscriber list information. Our enstomers; except that such term does not include subscriber list information. Our enstomers; except that such term does not include subscriber list information. Our enstomers; except that such term does not include subscriber list information. Our consent or as allowed by law and the FCC rules. Any employees that discloses CPMI is subject to disciplinary action, and possible termination. We also ensure that our vendors that lawfully have access to our customer CPMI, such as our billing company, are aware of the lawfully rules.

Other than the exceptions for use of CPMI being customer approval, as required by law, and the exceptions set forth in 47 U.S.C. $222, and Subpart U of Title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations; 47 C.F.R $64.2001 through $64.2009, CPMI is not used by Dobson Telephone Company without customer notification and approval as set forth below.

Opt-In Notice - This method is required for disclosure of CPMI to unrelated third-parties or to affiliated carriers that do not provide communications-related services. This requires the carrier obtain the customer's express, affirmative consent allowing the use and release of CPMI. This does not apply to subscriber listing information given to other carriers for telephone directories pursuant to FCC Rules.

Opt-Out Notice- This method is required for disclosure of CPMI to stifliated entities providing communications-related services, as well as third party agents and joint venture partners providing communications related services. Under this method, the customer is deemed to have consented to the use, disclosure or access to the customer's CPMI if the customer has failed to object thereto within a minimum of 30 days from receiving notice.

If our customers' CPMI is used for sales and marketing campaigns, the appropriate safeguards are taken as set forth in 47 C.F.R. $64.2009.
